Etteri Clear is a transparent case for your phone, perfect for users who want to maintain the original look of their device. The case comes packaged in a minimalist, paper box, giving it an elegant and modern appearance. Made of flexible, non-yellowing TPU material, it provides excellent protection against damage while keeping a pristine look. Raised edges around the camera protect the lens from scratches and minimize the risk of damage from falls. The interior features a special coating that effectively protects the phone from moisture buildup, ensuring long-lasting protection. Etteri Silicon is compatible with MagSafe technology and wireless charging, enabling easy and convenient wireless charging. Precisely cut openings provide easy access to all necessary ports, sensors, and speakers without limiting the device's functionality. Due to its high flexibility, the case is easy to put on and take off. The case is equipped with special holes that allow for attaching a lanyard or keychain, providing additional functionality and convenience for carrying. Etteri Clear is the perfect solution for those who value the aesthetics, protection, and functionality of their phone.
