The Mercury Jelly Case is a practical and aesthetic solution for customers looking for lightweight yet effective protection for their smartphone. Made of high-quality flexible TPU (thermoplastic polyurethane), it fits perfectly to the device's body, ensuring user comfort and protection against everyday damages. The smooth, uniform surface of the case gives the device a modern look, and the wide range of popular colors allows for a perfect match to different user preferences. The slim design does not significantly increase the size of the phone, and the flexible material makes for quick installation and removal. Key features: - made of flexible and durable TPU material - effective protection against scratches, abrasions, and minor drops - lightweight and thin – does not bulk up the phone - perfect fit for specific smartphone model - precise cutouts for ports and buttons - available in many popular colors - quick and easy installation
