The Silicon Switch cover is a practical accessory designed for convenience and durability. Built-in chain and lanyard attachments ensure safe and practical use. The cover has a satin finish due to its silicone paint coating. Precise cutouts guarantee optimal protection for the camera and its island, maintaining both the aesthetics and functionality of the smartphone. The silicone coating provides a smooth and pleasant touch experience, as well as being resistant to fingerprints, making sure that the device looks good even during intensive use. *The chain is not included in the set, the offer refers only to the cover.
