Etteri Clear is a transparent cover for your phone, perfect for users who want to maintain the original look of their device. The cover comes packaged in a minimalist, paper box, giving it an elegant and modern appearance. Made from flexible, non-yellowing TPU material, it provides excellent protection against damage while maintaining a flawless look. Raised edges around the camera protect the lens from scratches and minimize the risk of damage during drops. The interior features a special coating that effectively protects the phone from sticking and moisture buildup, ensuring long-lasting protection. Etteri Silicon is compatible with MagSafe technology and wireless charging, allowing for easy and convenient wireless charging. Precisely cut openings ensure easy access to all necessary ports, sensors, and speakers without limiting the device's functionality. Thanks to its great flexibility, the cover is easy to put on and take off. The cover is equipped with special holes that allow for attaching a lanyard or keychain, providing additional functionality and convenience for carrying. Etteri Clear is the perfect solution for those who value aesthetics, protection, and functionality for their phone.
