9H Ultra Strong tempered glass is a solid screen protection that effectively safeguards against scratches, dust, and mechanical damage. Thanks to its thin 0.40-mm design, it is almost invisible and does not affect the comfort of using the device. High transparency allows for natural colors and sharp image quality to be maintained, while the oleophobic coating reduces smudges and makes cleaning easier. The glass withstands pressure up to 45 kg on the edges, confirming its exceptional strength. Its flexible structure additionally protects critical areas, and the precise fit ensures a smooth installation – without bubbles and shifts. An ideal solution for everyday protection of a smartphone or tablet screen.
