The Luxgrip Mag cover is an elegant protective case for your phone, made from a combination of materials for better durability and user comfort. The back is covered with synthetic leather, giving it a classic, aesthetic look. The built-in strong magnet of 2500 gs ensures compatibility with MagSafe accessories, and the stand function makes it easier to watch movies and conduct video calls. Precise cutouts for the camera and the availability of several colors enhance comfort and the ability to customize the case to your personal style.
